Imagine a place so pristine, beautiful, and peaceful you will be immediately struck by the absolute silence and the sheer majesty of your surroundings. A land that time has forgotten, where you can truly relax and take in the splendour of native New Zealand bush, snow clad mountains and the Hokitika River running through fertile farmlands. Rimu Lodge is this place.

Located on New Zealand's West Coast, this luxury boutique lodge is situated just a ten-minute drive from Hokitika with its award-winning cafes and unique tourism attractions. Architecturally designed, each guest room takes maximum advantage of the wonderful views to the bush and mountains.

Facing Northeast and enjoying the sunrise, rooms are casually elegant, yet intimate, and tastefully decorated, with central heating, double glazed windows, ensuite bathrooms equipped with heated towel rails, demisting mirrors, robes, toiletries, and hair dryers. All four rooms offer fresh flowers, refrigerator, comfortable chairs, tea and coffee making facilities and lodge baked treats, together with complimentary WiFi.

Relax in the great room in front of the open fire, or on the spacious deck overlooking native bush; enjoy the birdsong. Take in the local sights with scenic flights over Mt Cook/Aoraki or heli-hike the Franz Josef Glacier. Watch local artisans crafting greenstone, gold, wood and paua - purchase a true NZ Maori treasure (taonga) or design and carve greenstone yourself guided by a professional tutor. Trout and salmon fish in the local rivers.
